

How Can My Church Help Bring an End to Domestic Violence?

Become a Safe Place. Make your church a safe place where victims of domestic violence can come for help by displaying brochures and posters which include the telephone number of the domestic violence and sexual assault programs in your area. Publicize the National Domestic Violence Hotline number, 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or 1-800-787-3224 (TDD).

Educate the Congregation. Provide ways for members of the congregation to learn as much as they can about domestic and sexual violence. Routinely include information in monthly newsletters, on bulletin boards, and in marriage preparation classes. Sponsor educational seminars on domestic violence and teen dating violence in your congregation.

Speak Out. Speak out about domestic violence and sexual assault from the pulpit. As a faith leader, you can have a powerful impact on people's attitudes and beliefs.

Lead by Example. Volunteer to serve on the board of directors at the local domestic shelter

Offer Space. Offer meeting space for educational seminars or weekly support groups or serve as a supervised visitation site when parents need to safely visit their children.

Partner with Existing Resources. Include your local domestic violence or sexual assault program in donations and community service projects. Adopt a shelter for which your church provides material support, or provide similar support to families as they rebuild their lives following a shelter stay.

Prepare to be a Resource. Do the theological and scriptural homework necessary to better understand and respond to family violence and receive training from AVA or professionals in the fields of sexual and domestic violence.

Intervene. If you suspect violence is occurring in a relationship, speak to each member of the couple separately. Help the victim plan for safety. Let both individuals know of the community resources available to assist them. Do not attempt couples counseling.

Support Professional Training. Encourage and support training and education for Covenant clergy, licensed, commissioned leaders, lay leaders, and seminary students to increase awareness about sexual, domestic and teen dating violence.
